《Invitation/邀请函》
May 12th, 2019

You are cordially invited to join the special presentation in commemoration of Chinese railroad workers contribution to the economic power and modernization of America.

Let's recover, remember and pay tribute to the neglected history of Chinese railroad workers who made up the majority of the workforce that constructed the Central Pacific Railroad in the West and completed the transcontinental rail line between 1864 and 1869.

Date: Saturday, June 1st, 2019

Time: 10:00am - 1:45pm

Location: Chinese American Museum of Chicago
238 W. 23rd Street, Chicago, IL 60616
Tel: 312-949-1000

Our program includes a presentation of the Resolutions, Keynote presentation by Professor Roland Hsu who has devoted his time in research of the Chinese Railroad workers at Stanford University. One of his books: "The Chinese and the Iron Road" and the documentary film: "Making Tracks / The Phillip P. Choy Story" will be presented to remind us of our great ancestors' braveness and hardships that helped America advance 150 years ago.

Looking forward to your participation in the great Chinese American history.

Thank you.

Jointly Respectfully yours,
